I.

The Washington State Gambling Commission issued Horse Heaven Hills, organization number 00-21981, the following license:

Number 53-21017; Authorizing Class "A" Amusement Games.

The license expires on October 28, 2010, and was issued subject to the licensee's compliance with state gambling laws and regulations.

II.

Rick Day, Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission, charges the licensee with the following violation of the Washington State Gambling Act, 9.46 RCW, and WAC Title 230:

- 1) On October 21, 2009, the Washington State Gambling Commission received a Commercial Amusement Game Class "A" application from Horse Heaven Hills. Commission staff issued the license on October 29, 2009.
- 2) On January 21, 2010, a Commission Special Agent (agent) was contacted by Commission licensing staff, informing the agent that the licensee may have been issued its license by mistake, and that the licensee did not meet the requirements for amusement games stated in RCW 9.46.0331. Specifically, the licensee does not meet the minimum square footage requirements for a grocery or department store, or the requirements for a business whose primary activity is to provide food service on the premises.
- 3) The agent confirmed that the licensed property is 5,641 square feet, less than the 10,000 required for a licensed grocery or department store. The agent also confirmed that the licensee does not have a restaurant. Company profiles and county property listings describe the property as a truck stop.
- 4) Licensing staff contacted the licensee by phone, explained the mistake, and requested return of the license. The license was not returned. On April 6, 2010, licensing staff wrote a letter to the licensee requesting return of the license, with a deadline of April 16, 2010. The letter indicated that if the license was not returned, the file would be submitted for administrative charges.

- 5) As of May 7, 2010, the license had not been returned.
- 6) Grounds exist for the revocation of Horse Heaven Hills' license to conduct gambling activities, based on RCW 9.46.075(1) and (3), RCW 9.46.0331, and WAC 230-03-085(1), and (3).
